

Congressman Pence was at the first public hearing of the GOP Working Group on Economic Solutions which had former Massachusetts Governor Mitt Romney and Meg Whitman as its panelists.

Congressman Pence asked each about tax relief that they thought would be most helpful in getting our economy on the road to recovery.